About Your Tour Operator

Pamela S. Stutzman, Certified Reiki Master, Designer and Feng Shui Consultant, Artist, and Writer has been conducting group travel as a Professional Tour Director throughout North and South America, the United Kingdom, Canada, and Mexico since 1993. Pamela's passion for spiritual travel and discovering the mysteries of ancient cultures has been an intrinsic part of her own spiritual path as well as her professional travel expertise. Pamela's philosophy on spiritual journeying is that each unique tour adventure becomes a powerful and integrative healing experience which broadens the traveler, bringing to each person a greater sense of wholeness and Divine purpose.

A member of the Chicago Tour Professionals Association, Pamela is an inspiring facilitator whose approach to travel that enriches the soul, is to invite each participant to stay open to heightening their awareness of the Divine through the richness in beauty, culture, and folklore from all the spectacular regions they visit. "In so doing, one can gain a more purified perspective on the wisdom and wonder of each culture visited & the ancient teachings they have to offer. As we individually accelerate our own spiritual evolution by visiting, blessing, and indoctrinating ourselves into some of the Earth's most sacred power places, we collectively engage a greater momentum to advance the spirit of the Christ-Consciousness for global healing. When life enhancing spiritual travel is experienced as a fun-filled group adventure, each journey becomes a sacred passage!"

Remember to Bring

Please engage an open-hearted and positive attitude for this marvelous adventure! We are all embarking on a life-enriching experience and creating a very beautiful and loving network with each other. This energy pattern will create much healing for ourselves and amplify the potency of our group prayers at the sacred sites (participation optional). For those travelers who are venturing outside the United States for the first time, the best mindset to adopt is just simply to hang loose, stay flexible, and commit to having fun!

An atmosphere of openness and universal acceptance of many new and exciting discoveries will enhance the richness of the spiritual fabric we are weaving. We will all enjoy an abundance of fun, laughter, spontaneity, and merriment as well as some deeply magical & transformational moments! It is a rare privilege to share this wondrous and memorable journey with other spiritually-minded travelers. The remainder of your travel documents will be mailed to you 2 weeks prior to departure.

How to Prepare

It is most beneficial to begin a consistent walking regimen or daily exercise routine to condition your body for hiking in high altitudes. Most travelers benefit from some form of altitude preparation to better help them adjust during the tour. Please consult your physician or health care professional and make any necessary purchases before departure (see Aquagen information on previous page).

***Suggestion*****

It is very helpful if you can be mindful of eliminating excess toxins from your diet a month prior to departure; i.e., excess caffeine, nicotine, alcohol, sugar, red meat, foods with excessive chemicals, etc. The more purified water you can incorporate into your diet weeks before departure, the more clear your system will be to reap the energetic benefits at the sacred power places we will visit. It is advisable to set aside a designated time allowance each day for meditation & prayer as this will help in attuning your body & mind to a higher level of receptivity to benefit from this entire pilgrimage experience. Travelers find these suggestions to be wonderful tools that enhance every aspect of their journey experience!
